

Water voles at Trelusback with Kernow Conservation

Saturday 11th May 10am to midday (approximately)

Join us at Trelusback Farm to hear from David Carrier at Kernow Conservation about how their water vole project is progressing. Learn about the project and how to identify water vole signs!

Booking: Booking essential using this link, £5 for non-members and £3 for members. Payment in cash on the day (please bring cash with you!). You will be able to join the Group on the day for the princely sum of £5/year. (Nov. to Nov.). Children under 16 years old are welcome (and free) if accompanied by an adult. Sorry, no dogs are permitted.

Meeting point: Trelusback Farm
Penhalvean
TR16 6TQ

There's a track leading to it on the right-hand side of the road as you leave Penhalvean going towards Redruth with a red post box. What3Words location: aviators.leaps.test. Arrive at 10am, any problems finding it, contact David Carrier on 07723 046806 or Kelly 07434861401.

Further information:

We will be outside throughout the morning and so come prepared with appropriate clothing. The ground is uneven and very wet in places. There are toilet facilities available on the site. If you'd like to stay and have your lunch at Trelusback then do bring it with you. Tea/coffee and biscuits provided (bring a mug). If you have any questions about accessibility, then please contact Kelly (K.Moyes@exeter.ac.uk).
