

Otters on the Fowey

A film and talk by

Ian McCarthy

Wildlife Cameraman and Naturalist

Join Cornwall Mammal Group for an exclusive preview of Ian McCarthy's latest film of otters on the Fowey River.

Ian is recognised internationally as one of our greatest wildlife cameramen with a many years of experience working with the BBC Natural History Unit. The man behind the camera for programmes such as Blue Planet, Frozen Planet and Planet Earth. Ian's previous documentary of Cornish Wildlife—Wild Cornwall—out on the edge won prizes at Cannes and New York film festivals. Not only will the film footage be amazing, but Ian is a great presenter and story teller so this event is definitely not to be missed!

Lanivet Parish Community Centre, Rectory Road, Lanivet PL30 5HG SX04036396, W3W: alien.refreshed.slick

Sunday 23rd February. 14:00 to 16:00. Doors open at 13:30

Admission £5 for CMG members, £6 for non-members.

Tickets through Eventbrite by donation—please use the link in the email or copy the following address.

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/1142536721089?aff=oddtcreator>

Refreshments will be available. All profits will go to support the work of CMG.

